

Permaculture Teacher Training

LEARNING OUTCOMES

MAY 2016

As a result of successfully completing the unit students will be able to:

Unit	Learning Outcome
1.1	Know the scope of the Permaculture Design Certificate (PDC) curriculum.
1.2	Set course learning outcomes for a PDC
1.3	Explain the structure and function of the PDC
2.1	Design a short or long course and produce a set of learning outcomes
2.2	Evaluate and select an appropriate learning venue
2.3	Understand their learners and choose the most appropriate learning approach.
2.4	Apply the principles of adult learning
3.1	Open a course, establish trust facilitate an effective learning community
3.2	Select and use appropriate body behaviour and use non violent communication
3.3	Communicate clearly with a group, e.g. PDC students, short courses, manager of a community garden, or give talks publicly
4.1	Choose appropriate methods to facilitate learning in different contexts, and select techniques for ensuring learning occurs
4.2	Use learning materials effectively and design posters, printed materials and resources
4.3	Use teaching tools or aids - white boards, chalk boards & models
4.4	Use strategic questions to promote thinking and integrate experience
4.5	Deliver clear explanations and concepts
4.6	Use field trips and demonstrations to facilitate learning
4.7	Give a lecture with videos or presentation software
5.1	Teach special learners, prisoners, ethnic minorities etc
5.2	Practice teaching small, medium and larger groups.
5.3	Debrief and give appraisal
5.4	Provide opportunities for students to ask questions and provide feedback
5.5	Evaluate their students competence
6.1	Join a learning community of teachers for mutual support and further learning